

LEX MUNDI ANNUAL AND ASIA PACIFIC REGIONAL CONFERENCE 2007

SINGAPORE | SHANGRI-LA HOTEL

DISPUTE RESOLUTION PRACTICE GROUP PROGRAM

Thursday, October 11, 2007, 3:15 – 4:45 pm

The State of International Arbitration in Asia: Successes, Problems, Evolving Trends

Lex Mundi is pleased to feature three special guests, plus Lex Mundi firm experts, in a program on the insider's view on international arbitration in Asia. Topics will include: the problems encountered in international arbitrations held in China and India, the relative advantages of ad hoc versus institutionally-supervised arbitrations in Asia, the attitude of the Asian business community towards arbitration, and the enforcement track record across Asia.

MODERATOR:

Cedric Chao, Partner, Morrison & Foerster LLP, San Francisco

PARTICIPANTS:

Lawrence Boo, Executive Director, Singapore International Arbitration Centre, Singapore

Richard Naimark, Senior Vice President, International Centre for Dispute Resolution, New York

Manuel Jun Bautista, Director, International Centre for Dispute Resolution, Singapore

Pallavi Shroff, Partner, Armachand Mangaldas & Suresh Shroff & Co., New Delhi

Linfei Liu, Partner, Jun He, Beijing
