

DEAL TAKES OFF

Lex Mundi Member Firms Work Together to Help Client Soar

It was a deal that required connections in virtually every jurisdiction in the United States. A client of Lex Mundi's member firm for Utah required an analysis of various states' sales and use tax statutes and regulations before it could complete an aircraft acquisition.

The firm put out the call to Lex Mundi member firms around the country and quickly received sophisticated, high-quality input that cleared the runway for their client in record time. According to the Utah firm, the response by the Lex Mundi member firms made the difference between a grounded deal and one that allowed their client to soar.

Worldwide connections. Local expertise. Meeting client challenges. That's what Lex Mundi members and their clients can rely on to make their deals take off.
