Lex Mundi Member Firms Provide Cross-Border Assistance to Help Guatemalan Client Achieve Sweet Success in U.S. Sugar Mill Acquisition

Green Tropics Limited, a Guatemalan sugar cane production company, contacted Mayora & Mayora, S.C., Lex Mundi member firm for Guatemala, for assistance with the acquisition of a sugar mill in the United States.

The firm engaged fellow Lex Mundi member firm, Akerman LLP, member firm for Florida, to assist with the acquisition which included shutting down the sugar mill in Louisiana and relocating it to Belize.

Mayora & Mayora, serving as the lead firm, assisted with the acquisition and relocation of the mill and provided assessment of financing and the corporate schedule while Akerman LLP prepared the contracts in the US.

As a result of the firms' coordinated efforts, the cross-border acquisition was successful. The client valued the work performed by the Lex Mundi member firms and was impressed with the firms' ability to seamlessly coordinate their services in a timely and efficient manner.
