

Lex Mundi Fact Sheet

About Lex Mundi

Lex Mundi is the world's leading network of independent law firms with in-depth experience in 100+ countries. Our member firms are able to offer clients preferred access to more than 21,000 lawyers worldwide – a global resource of unmatched breadth and depth.

Each member firm is selected on the basis of its leadership in – and continued commitment to – its local market. Our principle is one independent firm for each jurisdiction. Firms must maintain their level of excellence to retain membership within Lex Mundi.

Through close collaboration, information-sharing, training and inter-firm initiatives, the Lex Mundi network is an assurance of connected, on-the-ground expertise in every market in which a client needs to operate. Through our global client service platform, members are able to seamlessly handle their clients' most challenging cross-border transactions and disputes.

Member law firms are located throughout Europe, the Middle East, Africa, Asia and the Pacific, Latin America and the Caribbean and North America. Through our nonprofit affiliate, the Lex Mundi Pro Bono Foundation, members also provide pro bono legal assistance to social entrepreneurs around the globe.

About Lex Mundi Member Firms:

Lex Mundi member firms are top-tier law firms in their respective jurisdictions and among the most experienced and knowledgeable in the world. They deliver indigenous insight, a market-specific focus and global connections to a diverse range of domestic and international clients.

Each member firm is admitted only after substantial due diligence and must undergo regular quality and peer review procedures in order to retain membership in the exclusive Lex Mundi network. Working with Lex Mundi member firms you can be assured that you will be connected to:

Quality Representation

Our top-tier member firms are committed to providing not only exceptional legal work but superior client service as well. Each firm is admitted only after substantial due diligence and must undergo regular quality and peer review procedures to retain membership in the network.

Preeminent Law Firms

Lex Mundi member firms are among the most experienced, most knowledgeable in their jurisdictions. They deliver indigenous insight, a market-specific focus and global connections to a diverse range of domestic and international clients.

Local Market Knowledge and Industry Sector Experience

Our member firms deliver unmatched "on-the-ground" expertise to clients. Through their indigenous insight – local knowledge built from hands-on, accrued experience of how markets develop and the forces and factors that affect them – Lex Mundi firms have the connections and capabilities to help shape innovative strategies for clients in any industry, at any level, virtually any place in the world.

Expertise for Complex Legal Challenges

Member firms have the local-market knowledge, experience and understanding necessary to handle clients' complex challenges and opportunities, including mergers and acquisitions; private equity; project finance; capital markets (debt and equity); litigation and dispute resolution; corporate governance; intellectual property; real estate; and labor and workforce issues in a wide variety of industry sectors.

Seamless Client Solutions

With 160 member law firms in more than 100 countries, Lex Mundi's global service platform is an unrivalled resource for clients seeking cross-border solutions. Our member firms understand the importance of collaboration, and frequently work together to seamlessly coordinate cross-border matters, transactions and disputes across multiple jurisdictions.

Supported by collaborative methodologies including technology, guidelines, procedures and best practices for how members work together for a common client – the firms in our network can assemble experienced client teams to deliver streamlined multijurisdictional solutions. These teams allow you to work with a single member law firm while benefiting from the broad, deep local expertise, know-how and connections of multiple Lex Mundi member firms.

Global Reach

Lex Mundi's broad international coverage, including 21,000 lawyers in 160 member firms spanning 100+ countries, assures that clients receive the fullest possible range of services from legal professionals who have in-depth, region-specific expertise in nearly every major jurisdiction.

Why You Can Have Confidence in the Quality of Lex Mundi Member Firms:

Recruiting Standards and Procedures

We employ a rigorous method of selecting and admitting new member firms. Potential members of our global network are evaluated on criteria that include quality, responsiveness, ability to provide a full range of legal services, reputation, use of technology, management structure, training programs and ethical standards.

Membership Review Policy and Procedures

While we apply high standards when approving membership, we also acknowledge that changes can occur in firms over time. To assure that our members continue to be the most highly regarded firms in their jurisdictions – and that they remain committed to providing responsive, exceptional legal services – we regularly review each firm. If a firm does not meet our established criteria, membership is not renewed.

Service Standards

Each member firm adheres to a general service philosophy as well as to specific standards, such as responding to a request the next business day or sooner. This provides clients (as well as referring members) with the assurance and confidence of knowing they will receive consistently high levels of skills and service.

Benefits to Members:

Membership in Lex Mundi provides member firms with a trusted network of law firms that share similar values and a similar focus on quality through which they can access global legal resources that enable them to:

- Serve their clients better
- Develop relationships and benefit from business development opportunities
- Continuously improve all aspects of their firms

Our Practice Groups and Committees:

Lex Mundi members can participate in more than 25 different Lex Mundi practice groups, industry groups, and committees. These groups allow members to stay in the forefront of their professions by providing them a global network of professionals with similar practice focuses and interests through which they can exchange information to find better approaches and solutions to clients' issues, stay connected to information and issues relevant to areas of legal practice, and develop relationships and generate business opportunities.

Our Client Advisory Council:

The Lex Mundi Client Advisory Council is an essential resource for Lex Mundi and our member firms. This group of senior in-house counsel from some of the world's leading companies provides advice and guidance in a variety of areas that enhance member firms' ability to deliver the best possible service to their clients and to better meet the demands of in-house counsel. Client Advisory Council members also offer valuable guidance in identifying best practices designed to strengthen the working relationship between in-house and outside counsel. Currently serving on the Lex Mundi Advisory Council are:

- First Solar, Inc.: Paul Kaleta, Executive Vice President and General Counsel
- Kimberly-Clark Corporation: Jeff Melucci, Vice President, Deputy General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

Professional Development Support

Professional development support is a cornerstone of Lex Mundi's commitment to helping make our member firms world ready and to assuring they can meet the market-specific demands and challenges of clients globally. Through Lex Mundi, members can take advantage of many professional development opportunities that promote the exchange of knowledge and legal know-how while enhancing and enriching the practices, skills and careers of Lex Mundi members.

Lex Mundi Institute

Lex Mundi Institute, the flagship of Lex Mundi's professional development initiatives, gives member firm lawyers access to training programs created specifically to support the advancement of lawyers' cross-border practices and management and leadership abilities. These intensive one-week programs assist new or soon-to-be partners and include both skills and substantive training. Each is led by carefully selected, highly experienced professionals to accomplish that.

Lex Mundi Pro Bono Foundation

The Lex Mundi Pro Bono Foundation calls upon Lex Mundi's unique global network of 160 top-tier commercial law firms to provide legal assistance to select "social entrepreneurs" on a pro bono basis. By providing social entrepreneurs with access to critically needed legal assistance, the Foundation joins the global social entrepreneur movement for social change.
